

Peer Mentoring 11/12 - Course Application Form 2019/20

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Email: _____ (required)

Peer Mentoring is a scheduled course for students at the Grade 11 or Grade 12 level who are interested in working in a classroom setting with other students. Initially, Peer Mentors are given a mandatory intensive training program outside the timetable and then are assigned to work in a classroom under the supervision of a teacher. This is a great course for students planning on being in a helping profession such as a doctor, teacher or nurse.

This course is about leadership and responsibility. You need to be able to lead in regards to behavior, attendance and work ethic. As a result, the expectations for you in the classroom and on all of the assignments are high.

I would prefer to be a Peer Mentor in one of the following subject areas. Indicate your 1st and 2nd choices:

<input type="checkbox"/> Math	<input type="checkbox"/> Computers
<input type="checkbox"/> Science	<input type="checkbox"/> Foods
<input type="checkbox"/> French	<input type="checkbox"/> Textiles
<input type="checkbox"/> Mandarin	<input type="checkbox"/> Shops
<input type="checkbox"/> Special Education	<input type="checkbox"/> Physical Education

*Note: only Junior courses are offered, English and Social Studies courses will not be offered to mentors****
